

MUSEUM-BASED LEARNING AWARD

Inspired by the Memory of Robin Bray

Designed for Teachers of Grades 5-8
Blue Hill, Brooksville, Bucksport, Penobscot, Sedgwick, and Surry

The Robin Bray Museum-Based Learning Award has been established in memory of Robin, an outstanding Orland school teacher noted for her use of experiential learning. This financial award is designed to support student learning in and beyond the classroom. Teachers are invited to apply for this $500 award to support project development, materials, transportation, incidental costs, or as a stipend. Projects must involve at least one class visit to the Wilson Museum and connect with your curriculum.

Wilson Museum Campus & Resources

Group Visits on Campus: May 27 – October 30

Wilson Museum: Founded by geologist Dr. John Howard Wilson in 1921, the Wilson Museum exhibits collections gathered around the world and close to home. See rocks and fossils from the earliest geologic times, follow humankind's advances in tool-making from pre-history, and wend your way across continents and among indigenous cultures.

Perkins Gallery and Museum Store: Step back to the Colonial era with a trip through the new, interactive exhibit Building a Community in Township #3 featuring home and farm tools and children's clothing available for trying on.

Bagaduce Engine Co. and Antique Boat Exhibit: Check out Castine's antique fire alarm and fire pump. Ring the alarm before moving on to see small watercraft by Castine boat builders.

Tours, Living-History Demonstrations, Classroom Visits

John & Phebe Perkins House: Venture through a colonial home with a scheduled tour of the historic Perkins House, placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1969.

Woodshop and The Village Blacksmith: Liven up a visit with a scheduled woodturning or blacksmithing demonstration.

In the Classroom: Select artifacts can be brought into a classroom throughout the school year.

Additional Support: The Museum may be able to connect teachers with additional financial support through collaboration with such organizations as the Hatch Community Youth Fund.

Contact the Wilson Museum Staff at 207-326-9247 or info@wilsonmuseum.org for information about Museum resources, examples of previous projects, and to schedule a visit.

Building on the legacy of its founding family, the Wilson Museum uses its diverse collections and resources to provide learning experiences to stimulate exploration of the history and cultures of the Penobscot Bay region and world.
